The counselors in the Office of Student Services work with all students in the School of the Arts and Architecture and are responsible for monitoring your degree progress, checking general education requirements and clearing your records for graduation. They also provide many other administrative services, including assisting with adding and dropping courses, program planning and course selection, declaring degree candidacy, withdrawing from a quarter, change of major, double majoring, or minoring in other disciplines. In addition, the counselors are responsible for reviewing all petitions for exceptions to academic policies.

MyUCLA (www.my.ucla.edu)

MyUCLA provides a portal to individual student information. Features include a personalized Study List showing classes and class information such as grades; a notifications section for important announcements; a subscriptions section to access online information from newspapers, journals, or magazines or from University departments, clubs, and organizations; a personal calendar; the Schedule of Classes, and UCLA General Catalog; and links to many other UCLA online resources. WebMail features provide access to private e-mail accounts from any computer via MyUCLA.

Via My.UCLA, UCLA students can acquire academic, financial, and personal information from their University academic records and enroll in classes. My.UCLA allows students to check their billing accounts, change address information, view and print Study Lists or Degree Audit Reports (DARs), or see term grades. My.UCLA also provides a convenient way to enroll in classes, to verify enrollment appointment times, and to view real-time enrollment counts.

Registration

Paying fees and enrolling for classes are two separate processes at UCLA. Your fees are due generally on the 20th of the month prior to the start of the quarter. If fees are not paid by the deadline published in the UCLA Schedule of Classes, your classes will be dropped.

Students' BruinBill accounts are administered electronically (eBill) through My.UCLA.

Students must keep their UCLA mailing and email addresses up to date and may change them online via My.UCLA (<https://my.ucla.edu/>) or in person at Enrollment and Degree Services, 1113 Murphy Hall. For students employed by UCLA (TA, Workstudy, etc.), updating My.UCLA does not also update the UCLA Employee Data Base. You must log in to UCPath to update your own mailing address. UCLA staff are unable to do this on your behalf.

If you are paying fees through student loans, make sure all of the proper paperwork has been submitted to Student Financial Aid. Students must be enrolled in at least 6 units to receive financial aid disbursements. If you have any questions about your student loans, call 310-206-0400, or consult the Financial Aid Office online at www.financialaid.ucla.edu or in person, A129 Murphy Hall.

Enrollment

You must enroll through MY.UCLA by the end of the second week of classes. Failure to comply with the deadlines published in the UCLA Schedule of Classes will result in late fees, and is subject to the approval of the Office of Student Services and the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs.

Students are expected to make continual progress toward completing their major, school and University requirements. With this in mind, all art majors are expected to enroll in both art major as well as non-major (eg, General Education) coursework each quarter until completion of these respective requirements.

To enroll in non-Art Department courses, consult the Schedule of Classes for enrollment restrictions. If the instructor's permission is not required, then you may enroll through My.UCLA during your enrollment appointment. If the class is restricted to instructor consent or is closed, you can request to enroll in the course by asking permission from the instructor on or before the first day of the class. If you receive permission to enroll, then the instructor will give you a Permission to Enroll (PTE) code which will allow you to override the restriction and enroll through My.UCLA.

At UCLA, lower-division undergraduate courses are numbered 1 to 99 and upper-division undergraduate courses are numbered 100 to 199. Graduate courses are numbered 200 and above and do not apply towards the BA degree.

Art Major courses must be taken for letter grades. Please refer to guidance from the Office of Student Services regarding Pass/No Pass (P/NP) grading for non-Art classes.

Deadlines

The official deadlines for registration, enrollment, adding and dropping classes, and changing the grading basis for a course are published online in the UCLA Schedule of Classes. If you have any questions about the deadlines, ask the undergraduate departmental counselor or counselors in the Office of Student Services, or check the Student Services Web site. The last day to add a course to your study list is Friday of the 3rd week of classes. The last day to drop a course from your study list is Friday of the 4th week of classes. The last day to change the grading basis for a course is Friday of the 6th week of classes. After the second week, transaction fees are assessed for each of these actions. Please note, however, that requests to late add or drop a course after the published deadlines are rarely approved. All requests must include a letter of explanation to the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs addressing why you were unable to add or drop a course by the applicable deadline. To request late adding or dropping a course, consult with a counselor in the Office of Student Services.

Students who do not attend the first two class meetings (for Art Department courses) could be automatically dropped, unless prior arrangements are made with the instructor.

Courseload

The School of the Arts and Architecture requires that undergraduate students complete a minimum of 12 units per quarter. To enroll in more than 20 units, consult with a counselor in the Office of Student Services.

Department of Art Contract Courses

Community Internship in Art (Art 195)

This course is intended to provide academic opportunities and professional experience in related art fields. For Art 195 (2-4 units, P/NP), individual internship assignments may vary, but can include positions at art galleries, museums, and community arts organizations. Enrollment in Art 195 is limited to Juniors and Seniors. For additional information regarding Art 195, please consult the departmental counselor.

Independent Studies Courses (Art 197 and Art 198 – Honors)

With permission of the instructor, and by departmental approval, Art students in good academic standing may enroll in independent study (Art 197 and Art 198) coursework in their junior and senior years. Check with the departmental counselor for eligibility requirements. Art 197 and Art 198 may each be taken for a maximum of 8 units, and students must also enroll in the colloquia course, Art 190 during the term in which they are enrolled in Art 197 or Art 198.

To enroll in Art 195, Art 197 or Art 198, students must complete a detailed contract online, using the contract course feature at MyUCLA (www.my.ucla.edu). The contract must include a description of the project/internship and a 10-week outline/schedule contract course that will serve as the course syllabus. Completed contracts must be submitted (printed) first for review and approval of the instructor, then for review and approval by the Department (submit contracts with faculty signature to the departmental counselor). Art 197 and Art 198 contracts must be submitted no later than the end of the first week of the quarter; Art 195 contracts must be submitted no later than the end of the second week of the quarter. At the end of the quarter students must provide “evidence of work” completed for their contract courses.

Effective Fall 2022: Only senate (permanent) faculty may supervise contract courses in Art; visiting instructors may not serve as faculty advisors to contract courses.

Petitions/Major Course Substitutions

Students who have completed UC-transferable coursework prior to beginning their studies in the Art Department should speak with the departmental counselor for information regarding possible substitutions of equivalent coursework for lower division Art major requirements. Students must submit “Blue” student petitions for all other requests for Art major course substitutions, including coursework completed as part of Study Abroad programs and summer programs at other institutions. Petitions should include detailed explanation of the request, a course description, and course syllabus. Completed petitions must be submitted to the departmental counselor for preliminary review and for final review and consideration by faculty.

Scholarship Opportunities

The Department of Art and the School of the Arts and Architecture consider qualified students for merit-based and equity awards during the academic year.

Students must maintain at least a 3.0 GPA in the major and minimum academic standing in order to be eligible for awards. Some awards may have additional eligibility restrictions. In addition, merit and equity-based Departmental award recipients also are invited to participate in the annual Department of Art Scholarship Award Exhibition in the fall term.

Award deadlines vary; application procedures and deadlines are announced via Departmental email Listserve. Students are encouraged to complete the UCLA Financial Aid and Scholarship Undergraduate Scholarship Application.

For information about non-Departmental Scholarship Opportunities, please visit the UCLA Scholarship Resource Center online at www.ugeducation.ucla.edu/src/.

Withdrawal from UCLA

Withdrawing from the University means discontinuing attendance in all courses in which students are enrolled. Students who withdraw during a term need to file a Notice of Withdrawal, available in the Office of Student Services (2200 Broad). When students officially withdraw, a percentage of the registration fee may be refunded depending on the date the withdrawal form is filed.

Students may withdraw only if they have not taken any final examinations or otherwise completed the work in any classes. For undergraduates, one quarter withdrawal places no restriction on readmission or continuation if they started the term in good academic standing. If you withdraw from or do not register for two consecutive quarters, you must apply for re-admission to the University in order to return to your studies at UCLA. If you are considering withdrawing, please speak with a counselor in the Office of Student Services.

BruinCard

The BruinCard can be used to check out books from libraries, for use of recreational facilities, and to receive student rates at museums, movie theaters, and on tickets for cultural events, among other services. The BruinCard office is located at 123 Kerckhoff Hall, 310-825-2336. <https://secure.bruincard.ucla.edu/bcw/web/Home.aspx>

Visual and Performing Arts Education (VAPAE) Program, Minor, and Arts Education Teaching Sequence

The VAPAE Program encompasses arts education related courses, internship opportunities, special projects, and public presentations offered throughout the year. These events are free, open to the public, and widely attended by the UCLA community. Students from all fields of study are encouraged to participate fully in the VAPAE Program, however the VAPAE minor is reserved specifically for deeply trained artists in the School of the Arts and Architecture.

The Visual and Performing Arts Education (VAPAE) minor in the School of the Arts and Architecture offers a sequence of courses designed to introduce arts majors to key issues and methodologies in the field of arts education and to a broad range of possible careers in the arts, including K-12 teaching, museum education, arts administration, art therapy, creative arts therapies, and arts advocacy.

The Arts Education Teaching Sequence, an important component of the VAPAE minor, comprises a series of three courses (Arts Ed M102, M192, M192SL) in which selected undergraduates explore core issues in arts education, creativity and social justice. Students are assigned to K-12 classrooms in the Los Angeles area, where they first observe and then implement an 8-week sequential arts-based lesson plan under the supervision of an assigned guiding teacher. The Arts Education Teaching Sequence is required of all VAPAE minors, and is also open to all undergraduates interested in exploring arts education.

LOCKERS, BUILDING USE, and PARKING

Lockers

Broad Art Center lockers are for undergraduates enrolled in Art Department studio classes only. Lockers are assigned to the beginning painting and beginning drawing classes during the second class meeting of each quarter. Students enrolled in other studio classes can begin to check out lockers starting the Friday of week 1 at the front desk of the Art Office, suite 2275 Broad Art Center. Lockers located outside, near the loading zone area, are for beginning painting classes only. Lockers must always have their assigned combination lock; students may not take off the assigned lock in order to put on a personal lock

Students enrolled in beginning painting classes must clear out their locker at the end of the quarter. For students in other studio classes, it is sometimes possible that lockers may be retained for the next quarter provided that the student is enrolled in an Art Department studio class. Ask Ben Evans, Painting and Drawing Lab Supervisor, toward the end of the quarter to see if that option is available. In order to renew your locker for the following term, students must bring with them a copy of their class schedule showing that they are enrolled in an art studio class.

At the end of the quarter, vacated lockers must be left “broom clean”. When vacating a locker leave it locked with its assigned lock. Any locker contents left behind will be removed and discarded.

Please note that neither the University nor the Art Department is responsible for any lost or stolen belongings from the Art Department lockers.

Lockers cannot be used to store flammable or corrosive liquids.

Building Hours for the Broad Art Center are as follows (subject to change):

2 nd floor entrance to elevator lobby	Mon – Fri, 6am – 6pm

Installation of Art Projects outside of Classroom

If you are interested in installing work outside of your classroom on the Broad Art Center premises, (e.g. on the lawn, in a hallway or balcony, etc.), then you must submit a Proposal for Student Art Project Installation at Broad Art Center form prior to installing your work. The forms are available from the lab area supervisors or teaching assistants. You should complete the form, have your faculty advisor and lab supervisor review and sign it, then give the completed form to Else Henry in the Art Department office. Else will then request permissions from the Design Media Arts Department and the Dean's Office for approval. You should allow at least two weeks. The Broad Art Center is a shared space and approval for using the space must be made by all parties before altering it in any way.

Campus Parking Permits

The allocation of student parking permits is managed by Parking Services. Student permits may be obtained on a quarterly basis, check the Student Application and Payment Dates and Deadlines for more information. Instructions for submitting 197/198 contracts and enrollment:

1. Complete the applicable 197 or 198 contract form via My.UCLA (www.my.ucla.edu): The contract form must be filled out completely before you can obtain approval for an upper-division tutorial course. An attached sample contract form is provided to assist you in filling out your course proposal. Please be specific! Include the content, nature, and scope of the project you are pursuing, as well as the frequency of meetings with faculty (three meetings per quarter is standard). Contracts with incomplete or vague descriptions will be returned. Contracts should include a 10 week schedule, including faculty/student meetings, which will serve as a course syllabus. 1 unit = 3 hours of work by the student per week per term. Four unit courses involve 12 hours of work per week by the student. As such they should result in more substantive projects and/or research and typically include a written component. See the Contract Courses link for contract forms: Go to My.UCLA.edu, and click on "Contract Courses" under the "My Features" heading.
2. Obtain Instructor signature: Discuss your objectives and project with instructor. If they consent, obtain the signature of the instructor who will be supervising your study and assigning you a grade at the end of the term. Beginning fall 2022, only permanent faculty may supervise Art 197 or Art 198 independent study courses; visiting lecturers may not supervise contract courses in Art. For a list of permanent faculty, please visit: <https://www.art.ucla.edu/faculty/>.
3. Submit contract (with instructor signature) to Erin Kermanikian for preliminary review for eligibility, and for final review by the Chair or Vice Chair of the Art Department.
4. Enrollment: After the petition is reviewed, and if approved by the chair, Erin will enroll you in the appropriate section. Please also note: all students enrolling in Art 197 and Art 198 must also enroll in Art 190. Enrollment in this course will be automatic for students whose 197/198 contracts are approved. Please refer to Departmental schedule, or speak with Erin for Art 190 meeting days/times. Confirmation of approval and enrollment will be emailed to you.

Deadlines:

In order to ensure that your petition is processed on-time, and in order to ensure your successful participation in Art 190 which has specifically scheduled meetings, you must submit your completed contracts to Erin for review no later than the end of the first week of the quarter ...and of course, the sooner the better!

Remember: The contract course forms can be found on your MyUCLA page under the “my features” heading!

UCLA

WHAT IS CONSENT?

CONSENT IS AFFIRMATIVE. Consent is an informed and conscious decision by each person, to engage in mutually agreed-upon sexual activity.

CONSENT IS VOLUNTARY. Consent means a willing and positive cooperation in an act, or expressing a desire to engage in an act. A person can only give their true consent if there is no force, threats, or intimidation. Silence does not mean consent.

CONSENT IS REVOCABLE. Consent to sexual activity, on one occasion, does not mean consent has been given to any form of sexual activity, on any occasion. A past dating experience or sexual relationship, by itself, is not enough to assume consent. Even in the context of a relationship, there always has to be mutual consent to engage in any sexual activity at any time. Consent is ongoing; meaning at any point during a sexual encounter consent has to be given, and can be withdrawn. Once consent is withdrawn, the sexual activity must stop immediately.

CONSENT CANNOT BE GIVEN WHEN A PERSON IS INCAPACITATED. Incapacitation is the physical, and/or mental inability to make informed, rational judgments. States of incapacitation may include, but are not limited to, unconsciousness, sleep, and blackouts. Incapacitation may be caused by alcohol, drugs, or other medications.

A person cannot consent if they are unable to understand the act because of a physical or mental impairment.

Perpetrators are responsible for their own behaviors even if they are under the influence. Being assaulted, stalked, or harassed is not your fault.

WHAT IS SEXUAL HARASSMENT?

Sexual harassment includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other unwelcome verbal, nonverbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature that interferes with a person's employment or education, and creates an environment which a reasonable person would find to be intimidating, hostile or offensive.

Sexual harassment can occur in all types of relationships: hierarchical, between peers, or between individuals of the same sex or opposite sex. The University will respond to reports of any such conduct between any such members of the University community.

WHAT IS SEXUAL VIOLENCE?

Sexual violence is conduct of a sexual nature engaged in without the consent of the other person, or when the other person is unable to consent. Sexual violence includes any of the following: sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking.

Sexual assault occurs when physical, sexual activity is engaged without the consent of the other person, or when the other person is unable to consent to the activity. The activity or conduct may include the following: physical force, violence, threat, intimidation, ignoring the objections of the other person, causing the other person's intoxication or incapacitation (through the use of drugs or alcohol), or taking advantage of the other person's incapacitation (including voluntary intoxication).

Seeking medical attention is always recommended, no matter when the assault occurred. Seeking help within the first 120 hours allows the best outcome for evidence collection and HIV, STD/STI, and pregnancy prevention.

SEXUAL ASSAULT SAFETY MEASURES

- TRY TO FIND A SAFE PLACE OR CALL 911 IF YOU ARE IN DANGER.
- CALL A CRISIS COUNSELOR AT CAPS (310) 825-0768 OR THE RAPE TREATMENT CENTER (424) 259-6700. Counselors are available by phone 24 hrs/day. UCPD can provide transportation to the Rape Treatment Center without taking a report. The Rape Treatment Center will pay for a taxi.
- Preserve all physical evidence of the assault until you have considered whether or not to file a report.
- Try to save all the clothing you were wearing at the time of the assault in a paper bag. Paper bags are best for preserving evidence; plastic bags have been found to damage evidence.
- Showering, bathing, douching, or brushing your teeth can impact evidence.
- If the assault took place in your home, do not rearrange or clean up anything.
- Whether or not you intend to file a police report, seek medical attention to receive a rape exam, emergency contraception, and/or tests for STIs and pregnancy. If you suspect that you may have been drugged, ask for a urine test.
- Although it may be challenging, write down as much as you can remember about the circumstances of the assault, including a description of the assailant. This may be helpful if you decide to report.

WHAT IS RELATIONSHIP VIOLENCE?

Relationship violence includes dating and domestic violence.

Dating violence includes abuse committed by a person who is, or has been, in a romantic or intimate relationship with the victim.

Domestic violence includes abuse committed against a current or former spouse, intimate partner, or cohabitant, or someone with whom the abuser has a child.

SIGNS OF DATING AND DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Economic Abuse: Making or attempting to make an individual financially dependent by maintaining control over financial resources, or forbidding attendance at school or employment.

Emotional Abuse: Undermining an individual's sense of self-worth and self-esteem. This may include, but is not limited to, constant criticism, diminishing one's abilities, name-calling, and damaging one's relationship with his or her children.

Physical Abuse: Includes, but is not limited to, hitting, slapping, shoving, grabbing, pinching, biting, and hair pulling. This type of abuse also includes denying medical care and forcing alcohol or drug use.

Psychological Abuse: Includes, but is not limited to, causing fear by intimidation; threatening physical harm to self or loved ones; harming pets and property; and forcing isolation from family, friends, school or work.

Sexual Abuse: Coercing or attempting to coerce sexual contact or behavior without consent. Sexual abuse includes, but is not limited to, marital rape, attacks on sexual parts of the body, and treating one in a sexually demeaning manner.

Threats: Using words, gestures, or weapons to communicate the intent to cause death, disability or injury.

Leaving an abusive relationship is the most dangerous time for a survivor. Creating a safety plan may reduce the risk that the violence will escalate.

DATING AND DOMESTIC VIOLENCE SAFETY MEASURES

- CALL 911 IF YOU ARE IN IMMEDIATE DANGER.
- Stay away from isolated places and try not to walk alone.
- Avoid speaking to the abuser; if it is unavoidable, meet in a public place during the middle of the day with people around.
- No matter where you go, ensure that there is a plan for how to leave safely in case of an emergency.
- Change the privacy settings and passwords of social media accounts to restrict access.
- Predesignate a friend or family member with whom you can stay during emergencies.
- Create easy access to keys, money, and important documents.
- Consider obtaining a restraining order or No Contact Order on campus against the abuser.

WHAT IS STALKING?

Stalking is repeated conduct directed at a specific person of a sexual or romantic nature or motivation, that would cause a reasonable person to fear for their safety, or the safety of others, or to suffer substantial emotional distress.

SIGNS OF STALKING

A stalker may:

- Follow or watch you wherever you are.
- Send unwanted gifts, letters, cards, or e-mails.
- Damage your home, car, or other property.
- Monitor your phone calls or computer use.
- Use technology, like hidden cameras or GPS, to track you.
- Drive by or hang out at your home, school, or work.
- Threaten to hurt you, your family, friends, or pets.
- Find out about you by using public records or online search services; hiring investigators; going through your garbage; or contacting friends, family, neighbors, or co-workers.
- Post information or spread rumors about you on the Internet, in a public place, or by word of mouth.
- Control, track, or frighten you by other means.

STALKING SAFETY MEASURES

- Trust your instincts. IF YOU DO NOT FEEL SAFE IN A SITUATION, LEAVE OR CALL 911 IF YOU FEEL YOU ARE IN IMMEDIATE DANGER.
- Do not interact with the person stalking or harassing you. Responding to a stalker's actions may reinforce their behavior.
- Keep a journal or log of all the stalking incidents
- If possible, have a phone nearby at all times, preferably one to which the stalker has never had access. Memorize emergency numbers and make sure that 911 and helpful family or friends are on speed dial.
- Treat all threats, direct and indirect, as legitimate. Inform law enforcement immediately
- Vary daily routines. Change routes to work, school, the grocery store, and other places regularly frequented.
- Try not to travel alone and stay in public areas.
- Get a new, unlisted phone number. Leave the old number active and connected to an answering machine or voicemail. Messages from the stalker can be critical evidence for law enforcement.
- Consider obtaining a restraining order or a campus No Contact Order.

Keep a journal or log of stalking-related incidents and behavior. Recording this information will help document the behavior for restraining orders, court proceedings and criminal investigation.

YOUR RIGHTS UNDER TITLE IX

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibits sex discrimination—which includes sexual harassment and sexual violence—in educational programs and activities. All students are protected by Title IX, regardless of whether they have a disability, are international or undocumented, and regardless of their sexual orientation or gender identity.

UCLA Will Respond Promptly and Effectively to Reports of Sexual Violence

You have the right to report incidents of sexual violence to UCLA, have UCLA investigate what happened, and have your complaint resolved promptly and equitably.

Reports of sexual violence may be made to:

- The Title IX Office (310-206-3417, titleix@conet.ucla.edu)
- UCLA Police Department (310-825-1491)

UCLA Will Provide Interim Measures as Necessary

Once you report an incident of sexual violence, you have the right to receive immediate help. This help can include changing classes, dorms or transportation. Even if you choose not to file a formal complaint, UCLA can take steps to protect you.

Please consult the Resources & Options Brochure for sexual assault resources, referral information, and reporting options.

You Have the Right to Be Free from Retaliation

You have the right to report retaliation from school employees, the perpetrator and other students, and have UCLA take strong responsive action.

UCLA Will Conduct an Adequate, Reliable and Impartial Investigation

The investigation and resolution of a complaint will be conducted by officials trained in how to protect the safety of victims and promote accountability.

The investigation and resolution process will afford both parties (complainant and respondent) the same opportunities to have others present, including the opportunity to be accompanied to any related meeting or proceeding by an advisor of their choice.

In addition, the process will afford the complainant and the respondent equal rights to:

- present witnesses and information;
- obtain notification of the timeframes for all major stages of the investigation;
- receive simultaneous written notification of the result of any institutional disciplinary proceedings; and
- have equal rights of appeal, if any.

UCLA will resolve the complaint based on what its fact-finder thinks is more likely than not to have happened (this is called a preponderance-of-evidence standard of proof).

UCLA Will Provide Remedies as Necessary

If an investigation determines that sexual violence occurred, UCLA will take prompt and effective steps reasonably calculated to end the sexual violence, eliminate the hostile environment, prevent its recurrence and, as appropriate, remedy its effects.

A student found responsible for sexual violence can face a range of sanctions, including suspension or dismissal.

These remedies may include remedies to help you get your education back on track (like academic support, retaking a class without penalty, and counseling).

EMERGENCY: CALL 911

Weapons are prohibited on campus. In addition to the traditional penal code sections, the educational code and UCLA Policy 131 adds restrictions with respect to campus communities. The following brochure provides information on campus weapons policy and an overview of applicable laws.

What is a weapon?

A weapon is anything that can be used to hurt or injure someone. Weapons could be any of the following:

- A knife
- A gun
- Pepper spray
- Your hands
- Your feet
- Any available object that could be used to hurt somebody else

What weapons are not permitted on campus?

Most weapons are not permitted on campus. This list is just a few examples to give you an idea:

- Any knife including a belt buckle knife, dirk, dagger, cane sword, pen knife, lipstick knife, switchblade, butterfly knife or any knife that has a blade longer than 2-1/2 inches, opens automatically or has more than one sharp edge
- Any gun without written permission and in accordance with California Penal Code
- Nunchaku
- Metal knuckles

- Airsoft, pellet, or BB guns
- Any concealed weapon (hidden from plain sight)

When can I have a weapon?

Some self-defense weapons can be carried on campus within legal limits:

- You can have pepper spray as long as it is for self-defense, not larger than 2.5 oz. and has a “Warning” label.

What about if I have a knife?

You can have a knife, like a pocket knife, as long as the blade is not more than 2-1/2 inches long, it does not open automatically and has only one sharp edge.

What happens if I am found in possession of weapons on campus?

The punishment for having a weapon on campus varies depending on the type of weapon. Punishments can be fines, imprisonment, and student judicial sanctions.

Notice on Airsoft guns

Airsoft guns, often marketed as “toys,” are nearly identical to the actual firearms and often contain interchangeable parts. As such, they are indistinguishable from actual firearms and should never be displayed in public places. Possession of Airsoft guns on campus is considered a violation of university policy and may violate applicable laws.
